South Bay Expressway is open to traffic

MIG notes that South Bay Expressway opened to traffic on 19 November 2007.

MIG Chief Executive John Hughes said: "We are delighted to have opened the South Bay Expressway to traffic. The road is an important link in San Diego's freeway network and will be a catalyst for social and economic activity in the region, which is one of the fastest growing in the United States."

In recognition of the strong community support for the road, South Bay Expressway is offering free travel for every motorist until 2 December 2007. From then, customers with a FasTrak electronic tolling account will continue to drive free until midnight 13 January 2008.

The 16km South Bay Expressway is the first Public Private Transportation Partnership in California since 1995, and its completion has been highly anticipated in the South Bay community in southern San Diego, California.
